MAR 29 1918
©CLE 419207

Stars And Stripes Forever.

Great Patriotic Song.

Words by

Joseph Albertini.

Music by

P. B. Story.

-5-

PUBLISHED BY
P.B.STORY
NEW YORK CITY NEW YORK

M1646
S

Stars And Stripes Forever.

Words by
JOSEPH ALBERTINI

Music by
P. B. STORY.

Piano.

In midst of bat - tle our he - roes fell. For As long as blood shall warm our veins. To the
That flag with - stood the bat - tle's roar. Strong lib - er - ty they fought with will - ing heart; For the dear old flag that we call of our broth - ers gone be - fore. While for the sword one heart sus-tained it with a gal - lant hand; Be loved and hon - ored on love so well Each sol - dier's brave and true at heart.

hand re - main We'll fill the ranks with mil - lions more.
ev - 'ry shore For e'er 'twill wave o'er Free - dom's land.

Copyright 1917 by Joseph Albertini.

Chorus.

Stars and Stripes shall wave for ev - - er Our dear em - blem rel - ic of the past — On fame e - tern - al it's glo - ry ne'er sev - er For- ev - er the Stars and Stripes will last. — Three cheers for the flag of our fa - - ther's Our faith in you nev - er will wav - - er; Keep it ev - er un- furled; it is bound to rule the world Hail, hail to the Stars and Strips for ev - - er.

427917