JUL 16 1917
©LE406833

When You Strike At Old Glory

YOU MAKE A MISTAKE!

By

WORDS & MUSIC BY Harry B. Stowe

5

HARRY B. STOWE
Music Publisher,
Kansas City, Missouri.

M1626
.S

When You Strike At Old Glory

(YOU MAKE A MISTAKE)

Words and Music by HARRY BEECHER STOWE
Arr. by Chas. L. Johnson

Our Her

flag is the flag of a na - - tion that of - fers you her hand _____ In bright stars shall shine on for ev - - er far ov - er land and sea _____ All terms of peace and hon - - or you're wel - come to our land _____ But na - tions too shall re - - vere our emb - lem of lib - er - ty _____ And when you scorn our free - - dom and de - fy our fair na - tions rights _____ You have those shall find pro - tect - - ion who will look to the Red White and Blue _____ And the Copyright MCMXVII by H. B. Stowe.

struck at a friend you will learn in the end, and a friend is the hard_est to fight worlds fair do_main shall in peace ev_er reign, when the dreams of her braves come true

CHORUS

For when you strike at Old Glo_ry, the flag of the brave and the free Be ware of Un_cle Sam take care for Un_cle Sam, who watch_es o'er land and sea You must remem_ber her sto_ry, and the he_roes who died for her sake For when you strike at Old Glo_ry you make a mis_take For when you take 411552