Where Is Dixie.

Words by P. E. Gold.

Music by Fred W. Webb

The time was when old Dix- ie land was on-ly claimed by the We'll move the ma-son " " line a- way up North O the South-ern man But since our boys have all joined hands and Dix- ie land, Theres no more south theres no more North, We'll marched a- way to a for- eign land, To rid the world of old all joined in to shout Vic'try forth. Theres no more blue there is

Sa- tans band who was all de- filed with blood y hands Then No- more gray all dressed up the Kha- Ki way... For.

all this land is Dix- ie
" " " " "

Chorus. Then where is Dix-ie O here is Dix-ie all

Up and down from sea to plain The glad ti-dings We will pro-

-claim, That all this land is Dix- ie. D.C.
