FEB -7 1918
©CLE415743 R

We're All In It
(In It To Win It For All.)

Words & Music by Harry E. Weiner

All° Mod^to

Voice

Some are in the trench - es, ov - er in France, Some are on the ships at sea; Some are at home pre - par - ing to leave, Hop - ing for a speed - y vic - to - ry; Some are in the fac - t'ries

Some are in the ser - vice, Am - bu - lance corps, Some are learning how to fly; Some are trained nurs - es, ov - er the sea, Car - ing for the wounded ere they die; Some are do - ing men's work

Copyright 1918 by Harry E. Weiner, 92 Morningside Avenue, New York City.

M1646
.W

working with vim, — Some are in their ho - mes knit - ting for him; — Some are saving leaving men free, — So men can en - list to fight Ger - man - y; — Some are down in food each day, Some are working without pay, To help our dear old U. S. A. — Washing-ton planning work that must be done, To help our Wil - son down the Hun. —

Chorus.

We're all in it, We're all in it, In it to win, In it to win; —

p. f

— 'Cause we're in the right, And we want to fight, for freedom and lib - er -

-ty; We're all in it, We're all in it, In it to win-

In it to win De-mo-cra-cy has come to stay, And Au-

-toc-ra-cy must fall; 'Cause we're all in it, We're all in it, In it to win it for all. all.

fe D.S.

425015