©CLE431318
SEP 27 1918

Our Battle Cry - Democracy.

Marziale

©CLE431318
SEP 27 1918

OUR BATTLE CRY - DEMOCRACY.

Our lads go forth from love and home
To fight on a foreign shore,
Girt with the sword of freedom
As their fathers were of yore.
"We do not fight for aggrandizement"
Our President did say,
But for freedom fight, justice and right,
And the glorious U. S. A.

Chorus:

Then hail Columbia's mighty host
In the fight for liberty,
For never will they quit their post
E'er humanity goes free.
Mothers and wives have given the lives
Of dauntless American sons.
Our swords shall not rust, "In God we trust,"
And victory o'er the vandal Huns.

On land and sea Democracy
Shall be our battle cry.
To set brave France and Belgium free
Our lads will do or die.
We'll ne'er forget brave Lafayette
Who fought for liberty,
And the U. S. A. will fight for aye
For World Democracy.

Chorus:

Then hail Columbia's mighty host,
&c. &c.

Written and composed by

Charles Homer Welsh.
228 W. 37th St. N.Y. City
Sept. 1918.

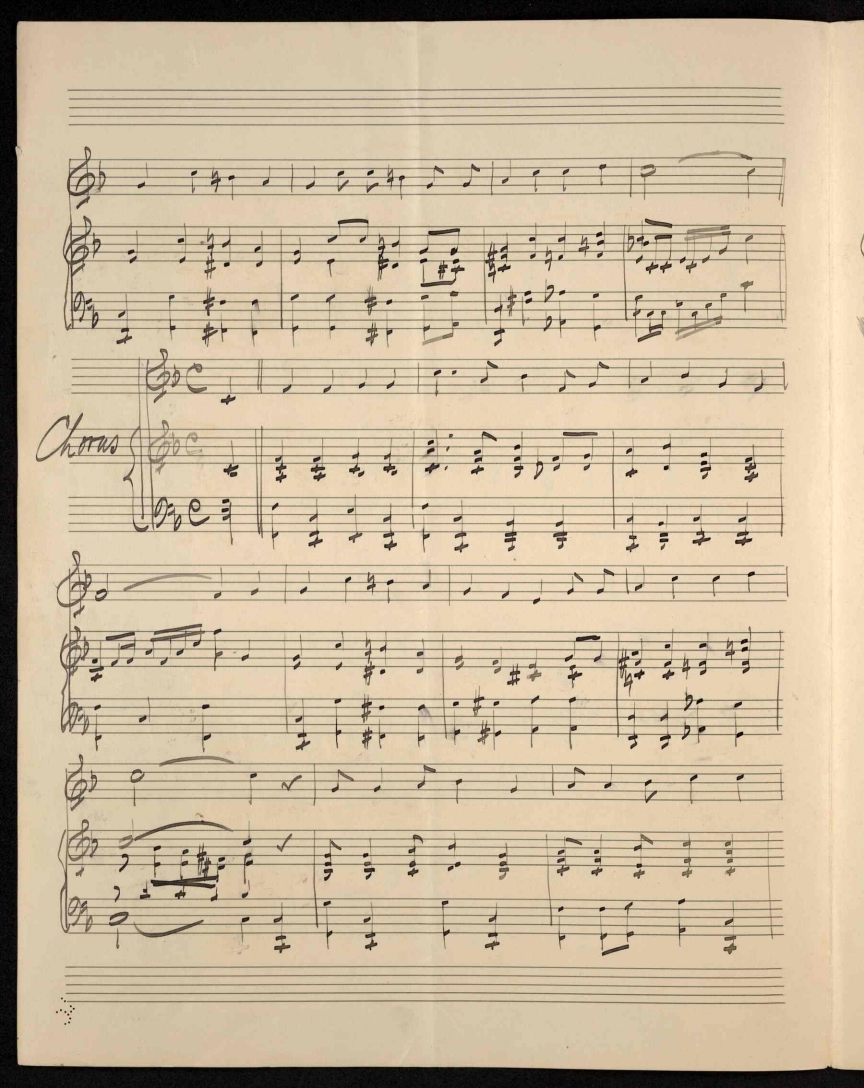
M1646
.N

©CLE 481318
SEP 27 1918

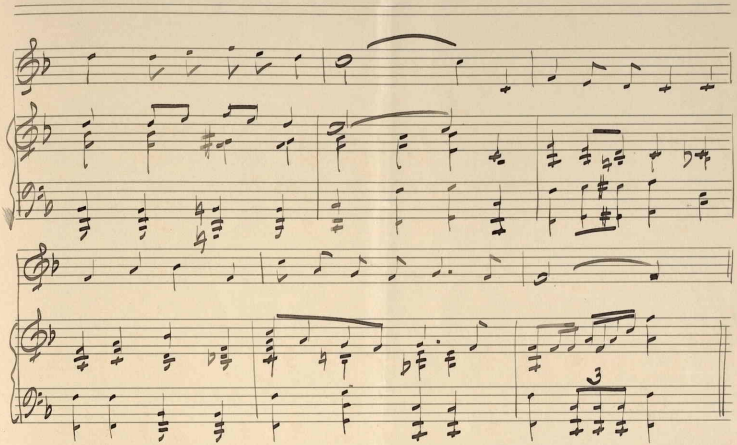
Our Battle Cry - Democracy.

Marziale

M1646
.H



Chorus



Written & Composed by

Charles Homer Welsh.

228 West 37th St; N.Y. City.

Sept: 1918.

450500