God, our Flag and the Nation.
Battle Hymn,
1917.
Words and music
by
Chas. Insco Williams.

1. In this land of the West,
The bless'd of the Lord,
May our banner wave evermore;
For the weak and oppress'd,
We will unsheath the sword,
And strike as our fathers of yore.

Chorus.
God lead us aright,
To the right lend Thy power,
Make our land Thy greatest creation;
In our hearts give us might,
Through each perilous hour,
For God, our Flag and the Nation.

2. From the East and the West,
From the South and the North,
From every mountain and valley;
Our sons shall come forth,
At the nations behest,
Round our banner, Old Glory, to rally.

Chorus.

3. Let the stars on the blue,
And the stripes, red and white,
On the flag of the free and the brave;
Be a beacon-light true,
And an emblem of light,
Where-so-ever that banner shall wave.

Chorus.

4. May the flag of our land,
Always fly for the right,
To freedom and honor we lend it;
May we trust in His hand,
May we trust in His might,
As we trust in the Lord to defend it.

Chorus.
