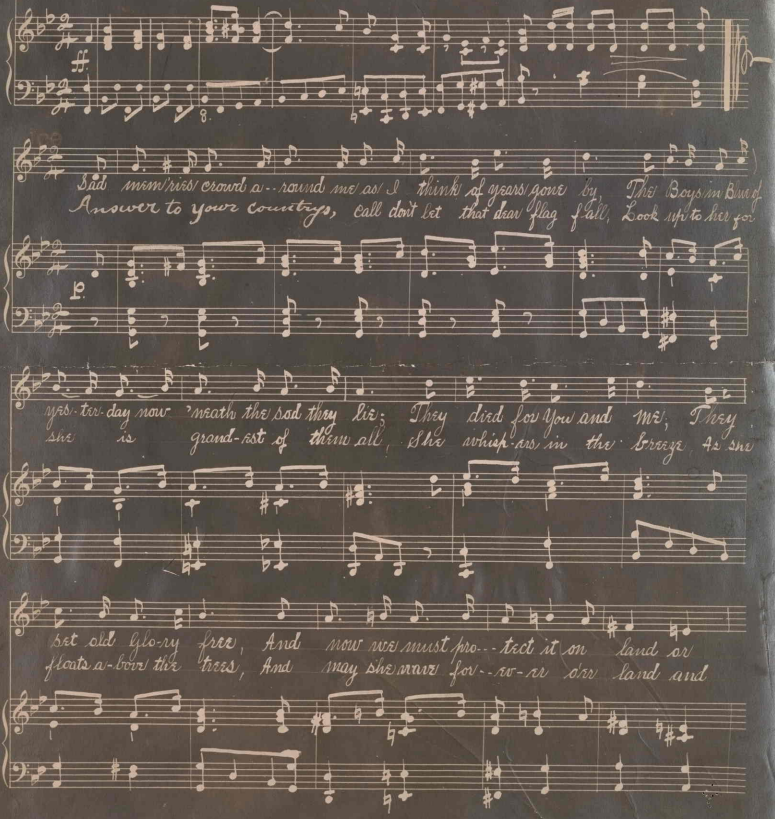
OCT 11 1917

The Boys in Blue Of Yesterday



Sad mem'ries crowd a--round me as I think of years gone by, The Boys in Blue of Answer to your countrys, call don't let that dear flag fall, Look up to her for yes-ter-day now 'neath the sod they lie; They died for You and me; They she is grand-est of them all, She whisp-ers in the breeze, As she set old Glo-ry free, And now we must pro--tect it on land or floats a-bove the trees, And may she wave for--ev-er o'er land and

©CLE414704 C

M1646
.W

Sea, Put on a un-i form of Blue be a pa-triot Through and through Sea, Now if your country needs you, put on a un-i--form of blue,

Fight for your hon-or and the old Red white and Blue, Don't be a
And fight for dear old Ole-ry no-ble brave and true, Cav-ry the fraid to fight When you know you in the right Re-mem-ber the boys of yes-ter-

Can-nus fire And go sail-ing on the sea, Re--mem-ber the boys of yes-ter

--day And fight! fight!! fight!!! day And fight! with!! might!!!

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 - 12 lines

©CE514704

Chorus

The Boys in Blue of yes-ter-day, — fought and died but not in vain —— They gave their lives for A--mer---i-- ---ca . Praise to her dear name The rivers and the val--leys and the hills and set-ting sun The Stars and the

©CLE414704

Stripes of Lib-er---ty — Hon or the name of Wash-ing-

---ton Now ov-er our heads is wav-ing The flag they made so free, So dont for---get that Un-cle Sam-my is call-ing for 1mo 2mo

you and Me. — The Me —

2mo

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 – 12 lines.

©CLE414704

421.50