©CLE 416061

DEC 20 1917

Words By
J. H. Kennedy

Music By James (Slap) White

"Good Bye My Chocolate Soldier Boy"

mod to

vamp

voice

AX ★ C. G. L.

Way Down South in the land of cotton they're shouting now with joy —
Soldier Boy from the land of cotton now go and take your stand —

mammy gennie am surely Proud of her chocolate soldier Boy — said she Don't he — look grand — there and I know you Won't Be for gotten — By mammy and Dixie land — When you come Back — you'll find — your standing at — comand — just see him Solute in his kaki suit to the captain with his hand — Be — old home mongst the Pines — so just fight for me and Dear liberty till your Broke that fighting line — re —

fore he goes a way — these words to him I'll say — (God Bless you) member What I say — Be loyal and ob-ey —

chorus

good Bye my choc'late solder Boy —

if you'll fight as you never fought Be-fore — you'll Be your Countreys Pride and Joy —

Some Where in france I know — so stick to the Dear Red White and Blue — all the nation Will say a Prayer for you — While you're in the trenches With your gun just fight like — (H) Well till Vict'ry's Won so good Bye my chocolate soldier Boy — Boy —

Copyrighted By Kennedy & White 1917

2628 Wabash Ave Chicago. Ill.

M1646
.W

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

431153