MEMORANDA.

Indeed, not only Nicholas, but all the Dutch of the Mohawk Valley were distinguished for their good nature, love of home, and cordial hospitality. Fast young men, late hours and fashionable dissipation were then unknown. There was, nevertheless, plenty of opportunity for healthful recreation. Holidays were abundant, each family having some of its own, such as birthdays, christenings and marriage anniversaries. Each season, too, introduced its own peculiar and social festivals—the "Quilting," "Apple-Raising," and "Husking Bees." The work, on such occa-
