JAN 28 1918
©CLE 115610

Carry On

Dedicated to the Boys Over There

(They'll Carry On)

Words and Music by

Sarah Allen Williams

M1646
.W

"Carry On" by Saral Allen Williams

Military March

Foreword: It is the war's commonest phrase and its best one for England. The soldier writes his wife: "Carry On." The wife replies: "Carry On." The English-man turns away from all outside inspiration, looks within and says: "You! You, Carry On!" It is like a Hymn.
William Hard.

When the word went out from Washing-ton, "A-Then the Eagle Soared a broad just in ad-vance The Now A.-mer-i-ca has given up her sons With

mer-i-ca must fight, ere war be won," Peo-ple Sam-mies fol-lowed close, right in to France. Through the No re-gret sent them to fight the Huns. word comes rose throughout the land, Shouting loud, as tho one man; "Uncle trench and firing line, Oh a splen did sight and fine, You can Back from O'er the sea, Ringing clearly as can be: "Never

Military March

Allen Williams

When the word went out from Washing-ton, "A-
Then the Eagle Soared a broad just in ad-vance The Now A.-mer-i-ca has given up her sons With

mer-i-ca must fight, ere war be won" Peo-ple
Sam-mies fol-lowed close, right in-to France. Through the No re-gret sent them to fight the Hims. word comes

rose throughout the land, Shouting loud, as tho one man; "Uncle trench and firing line, Oh a splen did sight and fine, You can back from O'er the sea, Ringing Clearly as can be: "Never Chorus.

Sam will show, he Can Carry On" See them all the time They'll Carry On" fear, We'll Keep you free, We'll Carry" On"

Car-ry

On, Carry On Carry On, Carry On, Give us

boats to get to France, We will break the German lance, and Carry On, yes Car-ry On.

423572