JUN -4 1917 ©LE403591

DON'T BE THE LAST TO GO

WORDS & MUSIC BY
L·V·WILLIAMSON

ECHO MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

Don't Be The Last To Go

Words & Music by
L. V. WILLIAMSON

Tempo Marcia

f

A fairhaired boy and a girl-ie dear, Were stroll-ing side by side He
A grayhaired moth-er gazed one day On a fad-ed coat of blue A p whisp-'red love's old stor-y And begged her to be his bride. She rag-ged hole there in the breast Told the stor-y all too true. Her answ'red dear You've won my love And I know your heart is true Alhus-band dear A sold-ier brave In the midst of bat-tle fell And Copyright MCMXVII by L. V. Williamson, Seattle, Wash.

International Copyright Secured.

though I need you at my side, Your count - ry needs you too.
when they brought him dy - ing home, He faint - ly whisp - ered Nell.

CHORUS

I want my boy to be a sold - ier And wear the Un - ion Blue,

And when you come march-ing home I'll give my heart to you
Tell him how I fought and fell For his coun-try dear and you

Hon - or the stars in Old Glo - ry And I'll al-ways love you Joe But I hear your Tell him to hon - or Old Glo - ry Tell him I loved him so And tell him count - ry call-ing you So don't be the last to go. go.

when his count-ry calls To not be the last to go. go.

SUCCESSFUL NEW SONGS

You Will Enjoy Every One.

MY HAWAII, YOU'RE CALLING ME . . By L. W. Lewis
The season's greatest Hawaiian ballad.
A wonderful melody.
Price 15 Cents.

YOUR LOVE . . . . . By Oliver G. Wallace
(Words by James W. Casey)
This new ballad, composed by the famous organist, Mr. Wallace, is surely a musical gem, and deserves a place in the repertoire of every vocalist.
Price 25 Cents.

MY NORTHLAND . . . . . By Robert M. Crawford
A delightful story of Alaska, wedded to a melody that is easy to remember but hard to forget.
Price 15 Cents.

EVERYBODY'S CRAZY 'BOUT HAWAII By Harold Weeks
Positively the best song written by this prolific composer.
It's a great dance number.
Price 15 Cents.

OLD LOVE LETTERS . . . . By James W. Casey
This is a song of the "Better Kind" that has won its way into the hearts of thousands of music lovers.
Price 30 Cents.

SOMEDAY . . . . . By Ernest Alvin Rice
One of the best and most melodious sacred songs ever written.
Now being sung by prominent church singers everywhere.
Price 25 Cents.

BOW DOWN TO WASHINGTON . . By Lester J. Wilson
The U. of W. Prize Song Hit. A rollicking good number.
Price 25 Cents.

KAMOLA WALTZ . . . . . By Libby Walker
A new hesitation waltz which is attracting much attention among lovers of good dance music.
Price 15 Cents.

HAWAIIAN ECHOES (Reverie Waltz) . By James W. Casey
This new instrumental number represents the very latest ideas in Hawaiian music, introducing, as it does, the Steel Guitar effects.
Don't fail to procure a copy. Now very popular.
Price 15 Cents.

The above numbers sent to any address on receipt of marked price.
Add one cent per copy each, for postage.

ECHO MUSIC PUBLISHING COMPANY

SEATTLE, WASH.