"When the U. S. A. Goes Dry." Arr. by Bartlett Briggs.

Introduction

When the U. S. A. goes dry, good-bye, I'm go-ing where 'tis
For — old Broad-way with life so gay, I'll leave a mourn-ful When the U. S. A. goes dry, good-bye, I ne-ver can for-wet. When the U. S. A. goes dry, good-bye, It's time to move, you sigh. When — grape-juice tops are all that pops Where cham-pagne corks did get. The — spark-ling cup, the foam-ing stein Which once my lips did bet. "My — coun-try 'tis of Thee" For Thee I'll fight and die. But the fly. The God-dess fair of Lib-er-ty Looks down with Hear-dimmed eye. For — wet. "Dem-o-cra-cy for all the world," you hear them mad-ly cry. But Dem-land of the free, Us move for me, When the U. S. A. goes dry! she can — see Her des-ti-ny, When the U. S. A. goes dry!

o-cra-cy, A joke will be, When the U. S. A. goes dry!
