©CLE426687

JUN 20 1918

Liberty Shall Never Die.

(Dedicated to The War-Orphans of Belgium.)

REV. OTTO BRAND.

Martial.

1. From a - cross the seas a chal-lenge Has been hurl'd at Free-dom's shore,...
2. Freedom's son's in wrath a - ris - ing, 'Gainst the pa - gan god of Might,...
3. From the North and South u - nit - ed, From the East and from the West,....
4. Side by side with Bri-tain's brav - est, Val-iant sons of La Belle France,

And Op-pres-sion's hell - ish vis - age Mocks a - mid the can-nons' roar.
Gor - y ty-rants' threats de - spis - ing, Once more bat - tle for the Right.
Ev - 'ry cit - y, town and ham - let Of its man - hood sends the best.
Fair I - tal - ia's le - gions, choic - est, Proud Co - lum - bia's boys ad - vance.

nf

See A - mer - i - ca's de - fi - ance, Writ in flames up - on the sky:
God of Wash - ing - ton, give wis - dom! God of Lin - coln, be Thou nigh!
Un - til Free-dom's foes go un - der, Un - til Bel-gium's tears be dry,
And each al lied Flag a to - ken, Like the rain - bow in the sky, ff ritard.

Trust-ing God, her fim re - li - ance, LI-BER-TY SHALL NEVER DIE!
They have sworn, those sons of Free - dom, LI-BER-TY SHALL NEVER DIE!
They will fight, nor 'er sur - ren - der— LI-BER-TY SHALL NEVER DIE!
Heaven's pledge shall not be bro - ken— LI-BER-TY SHALL NEVER DIE!

M1646

Copyright, 1918, by Rev. Otto Brand.

NOTE Patriotic and Religious organizations may obtain copies of this so LY COST PRICE (25 cents per
v. Otto Brand, Field Secr tary of the M n, N. Y.
he author sol