©CIE462557

OCT 24 1919

THEY FOUGHT FOR THE FREEDOM OF ALL

Words by Anna Whittford

Music by Artie Bowers

Tempo di Marcia

Voice

They stood by their guns, till Vic-to-ry was won, And the Now ov-er the foam, They all are com-ing home, Bring-ing foe laid down their guns. And thous-ands went west, while hope to us a-new. The dough-boy and gobs who do-ing their best, "Ov-er-there" to keep us from harm.

fin-ished the job, That the All-ies start-ed to do.

oth-er Na-tions may brag but it took our Yan-kee lads To
And now that its done, And what they fought for was won make save the Al-lies from de-feat at ~~th~~ the marne.

old Er-lin's dream of free-dom come true.

Chorus.

They fol-lowed the flag to help in the fight for jus-tice and for right, And for the free-dom of all na-tions, big and small, Without hes-i-ta-tion shed mil-lin in kha-ki and blue, went ov-er there with dear Old Glo-ry to die or do, For De-mo-cracy

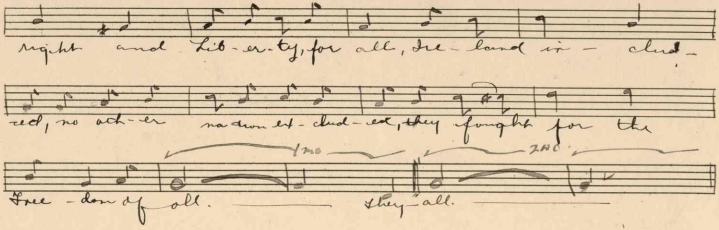
M1646
.B

Copyright 1919 by Mrs Anna Whittford 306 1/2 Benton St., Hot Springs, Ark.



right and Lib-er-ty, for all, Ire-land in-cluded, no oth-er nation ex-clud-ed, they fought for the Free-dom of all. They all.

472529