SEP 30 1918
©CLE431857

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO COLONEL CYRUS A. DOLPH

Democracy and Liberty are what we're fighting for!

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

DAVE BROWN

U. S. A.

M1646
.B

Copyright, 1918, by DAVE BROWN, 903 Tinton Ave., Bronx, N. Y.

PUBLISHED BY DAVE BROWN 903 TINTON AVE. BRONX, N. Y.

E. Pfeiffer N.Y.C.

Respectfully Dedicated to Colonel Cyrus A. Dolph.

Democracy And Liberty Are What We're Fighting For.

Words & Music by
DAVE BROWN. U. S. A.

Marcia.

Piano.

Mis - ter Wil - son tried his best, To have us en - joy peace, But Lin - coln, Grant and Wash - ing - ton Were peace - ful men each one, But for Ger - man - y could - 'nt bear To see our wealth and pow - er in - crease.

war they'd stand, Al - ways in com - mand, To fight with sword and gun.

With her sub - ma - rines she tried To drive us from the sea.
Were it not for these great men, Where would we be to - day? So

But as long as our flag will fly, We will fight for Lib - er - ty.
'till we make the world safe and sound, You will al - ways hear us say:

Copyright MCMXVIII by Dave Brown, 903 Tinton Ave. Bronx, N. Y. City.

Chorus.

De - moc-ra - cy and Lib - er - ty Are what we're fight-ing for. We'll stand be-hind the Pres - i - dent, And sure will win this war. So there's no time for de - lay; Come on boys we're on our way. A - cross the o-cean off to France To prove our loy-al - ty. Fight for freedom on both land and sea. Then we'll come back to our home sweet home, To en - joy De-moc-ra - cy and Lib-er - ty. De - ty.

Eureka Music Press, N. Y.

440283