©CLE417498
FEB 27 1918

"GOOD-BYE-FAREWELL-AGAIN!"

Song

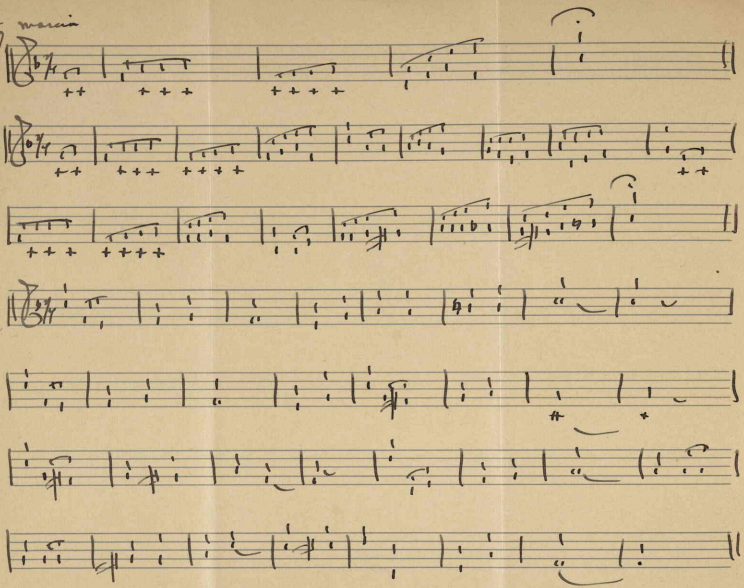
POEM & COPYRIGHT BY MERL L. MANN

BOX 203
CONRAD. MONT.

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
760 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



"Good Bye--Farewell--Again" By Merl I, Mann.

1

Now, the shades of night have fallen, and the storm comes on apace;
Hearts are heavy, but the bugle charges us to take our place;
We must leave you--but await us--in the homes that we love best;
When the war is over--lovedones--we'll come back to you and rest.

CHORUS.

Good bye--our hearts are breaking--good bye--for we must go!
Good bye--we'll ever love you, and ~~then~~ you where we go;
Kiss us--for now we're leaving--soon, in a foreign land
We'll be fighting for home and you, dear, Good bye--farewell again!

2

Noble boys, your call is sounding; kiss your sweethearts one good bye;
Press her to your manly bosom; and heed not her heartbreak ~~xxxx~~ cry;
Altho hearts are sad and lonely; look not toward the dear loved past;
Nations wide await your coming; home and loved ones must come last!

42-159