DEC -6 1917
©CLE413798

"GOOD-BYE! GOD-BLESS YOU, MOTHER!
UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN"

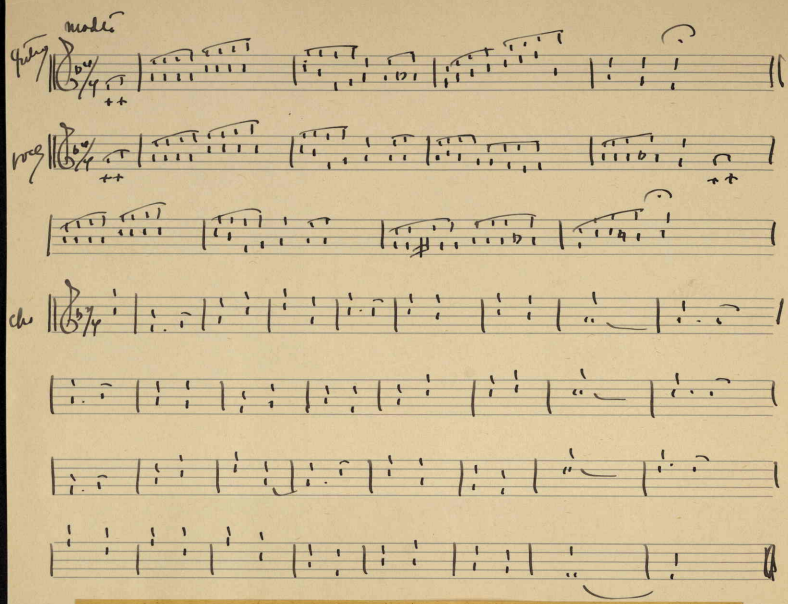
SONG

POEM and COPYRIGHT BY JAMES J. FEARON, 37 BRADBURY ST.
BIDDEFORD, ME

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



"Good Bye--God Bless You,Mother,Until We Meet Again!" by J.J.Fearon.

Mother dear you have been weeping for the boy who's called away!
But some mothers' song must man the guns;we're in the war to stay!
My dear Father fought in Sixty One, and wore a suit of blue;
As he gave his life for that old Flag,so I'll stand by it,too!

CHORUS.

Good bye! God bless you,Mother dear!Until we meet again!
The bugle calls--i must set sail across the raging Main!
Just give my love to Mary, and tell her not to mourn;
I"hope I shall return again,to you and my dear home.

2

Dear Old France is sadly pleading to this great land of the free;
She says Germany will crush her,and take away her liberty;
Uncle Sam he says:"Hold fast.for we are coming--millions strong!
We'll soon show the Germans that they must get back where they belong.

426656