AUG 12 1896 CLE 429856

"HAIL TO OLD GLORY"

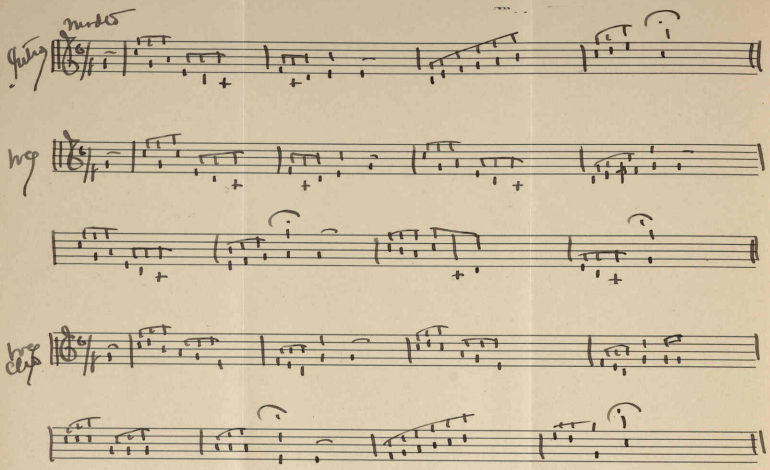
Song

Poem & Copyright By Geo. W. Judd So. Plymouth N.Y.

Music By

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



"Hail To Old Glory!"

George W. Judd.

1

All hail to Old Glory! Unsullied it flies;
If called to defend it, ten million will rise;
Twas borne undefeated thro conflicts of yore;
And 'round the Old Standard we rally once more.

CHORUS.

Old Glory forever! Proud Flag of the Free;
Thy presence a Hope to our Allies shall be!
And we'll never come back till our duty is done;
Democracy safe, and the victory won.

2

For that starry Emblem our Fathers have fought;
It stands for the Freedom their victories bought;
So We hail that Banner--untarnished and bright--
While we show the Teuton how Yankees can fight.

3

Columbia's children to Freedom are bred;
The offspring of heroes brave Washington led;
The Banner is safe amid dark battle scenes,
When proudly it goes with our Gallant Marines!

4

From North and from South, from the East and the West;
We pledge to our Country the bravest and best;
With honor and justice, our fortunes are cast,
We'll follow Old Glory and fight to the last.

40000