JAN -9 1918 ©CLE 115488

"I AM GOING TO THE WAR - DARLING SUE!"

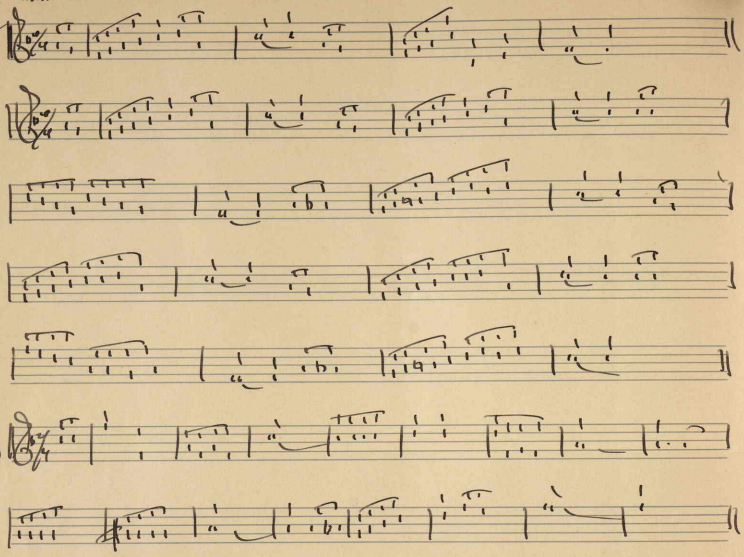
SONG

POEM © COPYRIGHT BY JAMES W. McCANCE ("BILLY CLARION ROVER") R. 4. BX 15 GLOSTER. O.

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE, 780 DAWSON ST., NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



"I Am Going To The War,Darling Sue" By Billy Clarion Rover.

1

You are all the world to me,darling girl!
But a tyrant's banner now is unfurled;
He's a menace to the freedom of the world;
And I'm going to the war,my darling Sue!
And my heart is sad with thoughts of leaving you;
But if to my dear old Country I'm untrue;
I would be unworthy,darling one,of you;
If I dont fight for the Old Red,White,and Blue.

CHORUS.

I may march through bursting shot and shell,
And fiery gas that sears like flamesof Hell:
But I will fight for Uncle Sam,and you;
I am going to the war,Darling Sue!

2

I am truly proud of you,darling Sam!
Freedom is God's sacred gift,to all man!
For the world I know you'll win it if you can;
But,my Sammy dear I'm going--that's my plan;
The Red Cross has work right there for me to do;
I must do it or feel unworthy of you;
I would be a traitor to Old Glory,too;
If I don't help win for old Red,White,and Blue.

JAN - 6 1914

423.02