"A MESSAGE FROM A MOTHER'S HEART" By Emil O. Markholm.

1

I cannot see you, boy, my dear; but I can feel your love and care;
Since you left me, I'm lonesome, here, tho in my heart I have you there;
Just thinking for the Cause you fight; it makes me feel so proud and brave;
For Justice, Liberty and Right--you fight for me--the world to save!!

2

Tho I am lonesome, I don't fear; I know that you are brave and true;
Rather than home, I want you, dear; there for our own Red, White, and Blue;
My pray'r will be your guiding star; be true to your Cause and its plight;
Happiness comes when war is o'er; Freedom will follow, then and Right.

CHORUS.

A message from mother's heart. it reads like this to you;
"My Boy, stand up and take your part--be loyal brave and true;
Tho Vict'ry it befar or near, I'll be yours, do not despair;
My love is yours, ~~from~~ over there--this is the message from my heart"
