"Oh, Yankee Land For Me!" E. G. Markholm.

1

They speak of sweet gardens of roses, and beautiful things o'er the sea;
I speak of my own dear land's beauties; my dear Yankee land-that's for me!
Its forests, mounts, and hills--gren clad--its rivers, its lakes, and its fields
A more picturesque sight you've ne'er seen it---I love it with all o' my might!

2

They speak of Republics, and Freedom, Democracy, Rights o'er the sea;
I speak of my own dear land's freedom, its greatness, and sweet liberty;
My fathers they helped to protect it, and I will defend with my might;
Its Banner on earth the most glorious--I love it, for I know its worth.

3

They speak of the homes and the castles, and happiness over the sea;
But there is morelove in my homeland --that home that gives pleasure to me--
Wherever you go you will never find any such land anywhere;
It offers the Stranger a welcome, the safe place for you and for me!

CHORUS.

Oh ever for me, Yankee land you will be, the land of the brave and the free
I will help save your honor, defend your name, and banner--
To live andbe safe for Democracy!
