"Oly Glory, She Was There!" Elizabeth M. Bates.

1

America, we love thy name, with all thy wondrous pow'r;
We would not changed with enthroned kings, or any foreign pow'r;
And now the War is over and peace has been declared;
We had our place right in the front--Old Glory, she was there!

2

We love our land because it's free, and in this trying hour;
When aided by our God above, great victory was ours;
When all the troops to Berlin marched the Allied Nations all,
The fie and drum were at the front--Old Glory she was there!

3

By iron from our mountains and by our inventors skill;
But all the aid our fathers gave, the Nations we did save;
We poured the blood of noble men, shed freely to defend,
Wrapped in the Flag they loved so well, the price of liberty.

CHORUS.

See Old Glory proudly waving! from a pedestal so high;
And reflecting back the glory of a God who cannot die!
As we sing a song of gladness, cheer and bless it once again;
Tis the Emblem of our Freedom, Peaceon Earth, good will to men!
