JUL -5 1917 ©CLE408446 C R

"OLD. GLORY, YOU · FOR · ME, AND · ME · FOR · YOU"

2

SONG

POEM. and COPYRIGHT. 1917. BY RICHARD F. FLEMING
68 W. 102d St. N.Y.C.

MUSIC. BY

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B

Intro

marcia molto

pizz

cbg

"Old Glory.You For Me,And Me For You" By Richard W.Fleming.

There's a land we call our land..a land where all are free;
There's a flag we call our flag that stands for liberty;
The flag our fathers fought for,their gallant deeds so bold;
Are told in song and story,but never will grow old.

CHORUS.

Cheer.boys.cheer,for the flag we love the best;
Cheer ,boys,cheer,from the East to the West;
The Star Spangled Banner,The Red White,and Blue;
Old Glory forever,you for me,and me for you.

2

There;s a home we call our home,it's home we'd like to be;
And friends we call dear friends,old friends we'd like to see;
And when we go back home again, there'll be a happy time;
Old friends to meet,old friends to greet,and songs of"Auld Lang Syne"

411605