"A Patriotic Soldier's Hymn" V. A. Springford.

1

When the war is over, Mary, and the bells of Peace shall ring;
And the trenches are all turned to gardens, green;
When the airships wings are folded, when in peace all is serene,
Then I'm coming back again to you, My Queen!

2

When Democracy's true Banners, they float over ev'ry land,
When the Bell of Liberty tolls "All is well!"
And the battlefields of Nations they in love and peace do dwell
Then I will return to you, my Mary Bell.

CHORUS.

Then, whisper to the Kiddies,
Just a word of love from me;
Breathe it to them
In their evening prayers.
