MAY 28 1918 ©CLE 25127

"THE SAMMIES ARE SAILING"

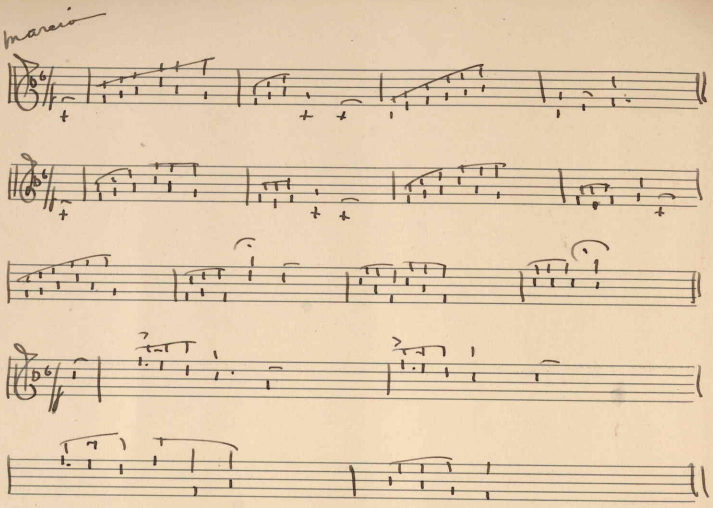
SONG

POEM COPYRIGHT BY FLORENCE E. GOODWIN, CHURCHVILLE, VA

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



"The Sammies Are Sailing" By Florence E. Goodwin.

1

The Sammies are sailing to France, and her foes—
The Germans are failing--they're weighted with woe;
Old Glory is waving o'er homes of the brave;
The Sammies are fighting the French homes to save.

2

The Sammies are singing the songs of the free;
O'er land they are ringing and over the sea;
They're fighting oppressors in jubilant note;
All ready to down him, as merry they float.

3

Now may the Great Pilot guide safely their bark;
Through sunshine and shadow, through dangerous dark;
And bring them back safely to the land of their birth;
All covered with glory--and victory's mirth.

Refrain.

The Sammies are sailing--go with the dance!
To victory prevailing way over in France.

452000