"Three Cheers For The Star Spangled Banner" Alice Nevel.

1

Oh, Columbia thou'rt dearer than ever
To the hearts of the brave and the free;
Thou hast shown to the nations of Europe,
That to thee the world owes Victory!

2

Thou has shown that both Justice and Mercy
Dwell in hearts that are loyal and true;
That thou standest for rights of all others
Who are true to the Red, White, and Blue.

3

The fair name of Columbia will never
Be erased from the hearts that are loy'l;
There's a welcome for every nation,
That may land with good will on your soil.

CHORUS.

So, three cheers for the Star Spangled Banner;
May she never for once beunfurled,
She has risen high up above others,
And gained peace throughout the world.
May the Dove of Peace, nest always with her,
May she teach to the Nations the way;
To rule only with Justice and Mercy
Keeping war and its hardships at bay.

4

All her sons they are brave many heroes.
Always ready to answer her call;
And are willing to give up their freedom,
Just to fight for their country or fall.
