SEP 17 1918 ©CLE431026

"UNCLE SAMMY'S ECHO"

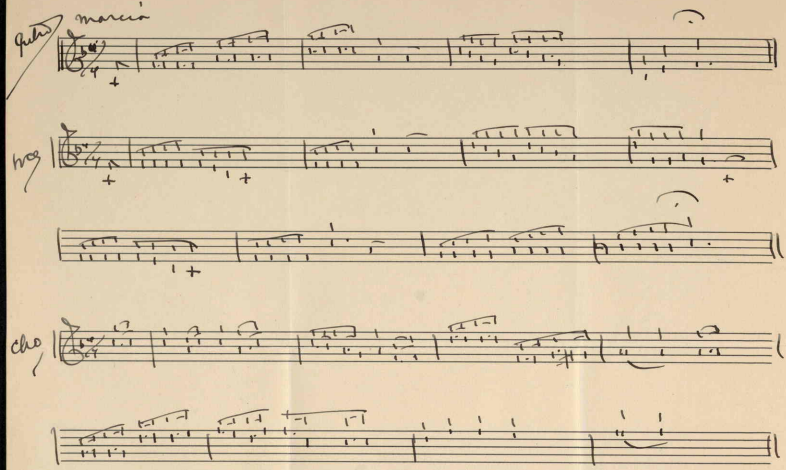
Song

Poem and Copyright By ED. COTTER, 70 Fox St. AURORA, ILL

Music By

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



"Uncle Sammy's Echo" By Ed.Cotter.

1

Oh,do you hear the echo that is all around the land?
It is the sound of Uncle Sam,he beats it on the band;
He 's going t. Beat the Kaiser'plans--that is his one demand--
You bet that he will if it takes each man in this great land!

2

When Uncle Sammy'sband does play,the Kaiser'll lose his smile;
The band will play,yes,double strongin good old Yankee style;
The Kaiser and his seven sons will have no place to roam;
And bye andbye our bandwill play that tune of "H"me sweet home!"

3

Our Uncle'll foam the ocean,and he'll sink the German subs;
He'll rumble 'em,and crumble 'em ,and send down thoseold tubs;
With tug and flesh,with wim and dash,he'll play the band once more;
Until the Kaiser he will hear its thunder andits roar.

4

So,give three cheers,without a tear,for that great echo for
It's Uncle Sammy's fighting band,that rings from shore to shore;
It soundslike sixty,so it does,it certainly sounds grand
But it will sound much better when it plays in Kaiser Land.

CHORUS.

So we'll follow Old Glory --this nation full of story--
And we'll rattle up the echo of the band;
Yes,we'll decorate old Glory with a coat of brand new glory,
When we've conquered Kaiser Land!

400070