"Wave Old Glory Over All!" by J. R. Snyder.

Come, and listen to my ditty, tho it's neither wise or witty,
But I will tell the simple truth to feeble age and stalwart youth;
The time has come when peace and right, must take the place of ruthless might
When Kings and Queens and Emp'rors, Czars, whose chief delight is bloody wars
Must all be driven from the earth and true Democracy have birth.

When the Kings with all their ho-ls, and their glee like fiendish show-ls
Banished for all Eternity and all the world is truly free;
And we must strike til all Kingsfall and earth be freed from royal thrall!
Til all men everywhere are free, as God intended them to be--
Kings must be driven from the earth, and true Democracy have birth.

CHORUS.

Arouse, ye stalwart sons of noble sires!
Strike for your peaceful, homestead fires!
Strike! strike! til King Oppression shall be banished evermore;
Til ev'ry Kaiser standard die;
And grand Old Glory floats on high;
Ober ev'ry nation tribe and tongue
Let Freedom's emblem high be flung.
