"We Don't Know Where We're Going!" Mary Allen Hanscom.

The Uncle Sam believes in peace yet,he's a fighter,too!
And when the whole world went to war,what could poor Sammy do?
He's called his sons from near and far--on sea and on the land;
From North and South--from East and West--we're waiting his command.

CHORUS.

We don't know where we're going,
And we don't know when we go!
But one thing's mighty certain
We're off to fight the foe!
We'll make the haughty Kaiser wish
He'd never seen the day
He started in a-scrapping
With our good old U. S. A.!

2

We'll stand by Uncle Sammy and we'll sail across the sea!
And join our Allied Brothers in the fight to make men free!
The Stars and Stripes must honored be--and tyranny must cease--
An warring Nations soon unite in universal peace.
