"We're With You, Uncle Samuel" J. M. Seymour.

1

Humanity is safe once more, from teuton tyranny;
The world is fit to live in, now, for Sons of Liberty;
All hail our valiant Allies, have faced the battle's brunt;
All hail, our Yank lads who fought with Pershing at the front!

2

We fought for home, and Allies, true, our Cause is always right;
For curle might of Arms is wrong, and right is always might;
Ten million Yanks went marching on, to struglle over there!
The battle cry of Pershing's men, was heard upon the air;

3

We toiled, we bled, we sacrificed; to save Humanity;
From death beneath the iron heel of proud Autocracy;
Ten million fighting Yankees went a-camping on the trail
That glorious Democracy, forever should prevail.

CHORUS.

We're with you, Uncle Samuel, to uphold Liberty!
To free the world forever from prussian tyranny;
We've rallied to Old Glory, from fact'ry, farm, and store,
O'er free men, brave, it will proudly wave, on high, forevermore!!!!
