"America, We Love You", I. J. Shelton. 14

1

America! America! it is a wondrous land!
It soon came to the rescue, and it gave a giant hand;
For France was bleeding, Belgium, xxx, it was crushed and bleeding, too;
Then, Pershing, he went over with the Old Red, White, and Blue!

2

Our ships were sunk, and lives so dear and innocent were lost;
Then Wilson said to Pershing; "Go! and make them pay the cost!"
Our men were called to duty and they answered to the Call;
They fought 'neath the grand Stars and Stripes, for Freedom for us all!

CHORUS.

Then, we started on our march toward the Rhine,
And we made the trip in record time;
We fought for our rights, and the Allies, too;
America! America! we all love you!
