Marcia

F.

Bring the banners! Let them wave! Ev'ry land and sea they brave;
Right to live and la-bor ours, Happy home and life's fair flow'rs,
Let the joyous music sound, Over the moving world rebound;

P.

Never shall the Despot's vow make a valiant
Right to land and right to wave, all to help and Wicked cru-el ty shall cease, Life bring all the people bow; Glowing truth shall ever sing, bless and save; Right to ever loyal stand people peace; "Common good" our cry shall be,

For The

"God, the Lord most High, is King!
truth, just law, sane conscience grand.
people's mighty uni- ty.

Hear now the song of amer-i-ca- Lift up glad notes and long;

Let all the world know the wondrous strain. Hear America's song.

441218

©CLE433785

America's Song.

Bring the banners, let them wave,
Every land and sea they brave;
Never shall the despots now
Make a valiant people bow;
Glowing truth shall ever sing,
God, the Lord most high, is King!

Right to live and labor ours,
Happy home, and life's fair flow'rs;
Right to land and right to wave,
All to help and bless and save;
Right to ever loyal stand
For truth, just-law, sane conscience grand.

Let the joyful music sound,
O'er the moving world rebound;
Wicked cruelty shall cease,
Life bring all the people peace;
"Common good" our cry shall be,
"The Peoples mighty unity."

Refrain.

Hear now the song of America;
Lift up glad notes and long;
Let all the world know the wondrous strain,
Hear America's Song.

C. H. B.

NOV -9 1918