"Beautiful Land-My Native Land!" Frederic D. Lane.

1

Beautiful land--my native land--smiling between the rolling seas;
Star of the world--my dear homeland--gladly we sing and work for thee!
Beautiful hills, with rocks and rills, beautiful groves and fertile plain,
Lakes that are clear and homes so dear, here would I live and sweetly reign!

2

Land of the Free--my native land--promise of hope to lands afar;
Light of their path in darkest night, day unto day their guiding star;
Onward thy march, my dear homeland, light upon light while years unroll;
Upward thy flight, towards truth and right, pillar of light to ev'ry soul!

CHORUS.

O beautiful land! My native land!
The dearest of all-where'er I roam;
Thy temples grand are genuine souls.
Who dive in the light of home, sweet home!
