JAN 20 1919 ©CIE441455

There'll Be Something A'doing -

Copyright copy - Jan 1919

Brunn & Fitzpatrick

Box 453. Kenwick - Wash.

Note. 1st mss made in October 1918.
For private use

Nr. 3.—Carl Fischer, New York.

H1646
.B

There'll Be Something a Doing.

Words by F. L. Fitzpatrick.

Music by Gilbert Brunn.

Lively

ff

Vamp

Slower

p

Rall

There'll be something a doing in the U S A When the Lads come home from over the way There'll be something a doing to show our pride for There'll be something a doing for we've saved the world Old glory has been once a-gain un-furled Unfurled for peace and freedom too The heroes who have fought and died. Our pride for those who lived to see the Huns defeat Our victo-ry grand old flag so staunch and true. The emblem of our land so free - Has won a rousing victo-ry There'll be

mf

cresc

Chorus Not too fast something a doing and you may know the time of your life that's not too slow. The drums will beat the bells will ring. The men will shout and the girls will sing. The world will cheer and the flags will fly. There'll be something a doing and the time's near by. There'll be rall - -

mf

cres

something a doing and you may bet the time of your life that you won't forget.

1st Ending

There'll be cres - - - - - -

ff

fz

f

f

2nd ending.

Lively

449160