The Spirit of the U. S. A.

Words and Music by Arthur L. Murray + Norman Bryan

Intro.

Verse

1. (Male) We're on our way to face the fray for free-dom We leave be-hind our treasures all so dear Our
2. (Female) Our boys are on their way to fight for free-dom 'Tis hard to let them go with-out a tear But friends, our homes, our lov-ing hearts so ten-der We're lear-ing full of cheer For centuries we have fightings not a-lone the war's great bur-den There's work to do right here So for them we'll be fought to hold our free-dom 'Tis our greatest as-set in the world to-day . So with our Al-lies working in our home-land To fact'ries farms and Mills we'll gladly go We speed pro-duction

Chorus

at our side for li-ber-ty We'll van-quish a-ny foe We know the va-lue of our li-ber while they fight for li-ber-ty We'll con-quer a-ny foe

-ty And ev-ery one will do his share Our coun-tries Call, Means one and all We'll do our bit We'll never quit at home or ov-er there Each heart is beating for the no-ble cause We feel it ev'ry where today And now that we are in-it There is nought to do but win-it Thats the spi-rit of the U. S. A.
