OCT 19 1918
©CLE433154

Freedom.

(Shall reign the world anew.)

Words by R.A. Lundquist
Music by J.E.Burns.

Mod.to mf

Voice

I met a girl the oth--er day, Her eyes were filled with tears; I
I tried to cheer her all I could To drive her tears a-----way; I asked her what her sor---rows were,--- What tro---bles or what fears, A told her that her sol--dier lad would re-----turn to her some day; That tear rolled down her cheek and then With sad and lov-----ing eyes She in the trench----es "o-----ver there"--When in the thick---est fight, To told a tale of love to me -- A tale that nev-----er dies.------- do for her and U. S. A. He will with all his might.-------

Cho

He's o---ver seas, he's o---ver there; Fight-ing for us in France some-

-where; You'll find him brave, You'll find him true And wil--ling his part to do.-------

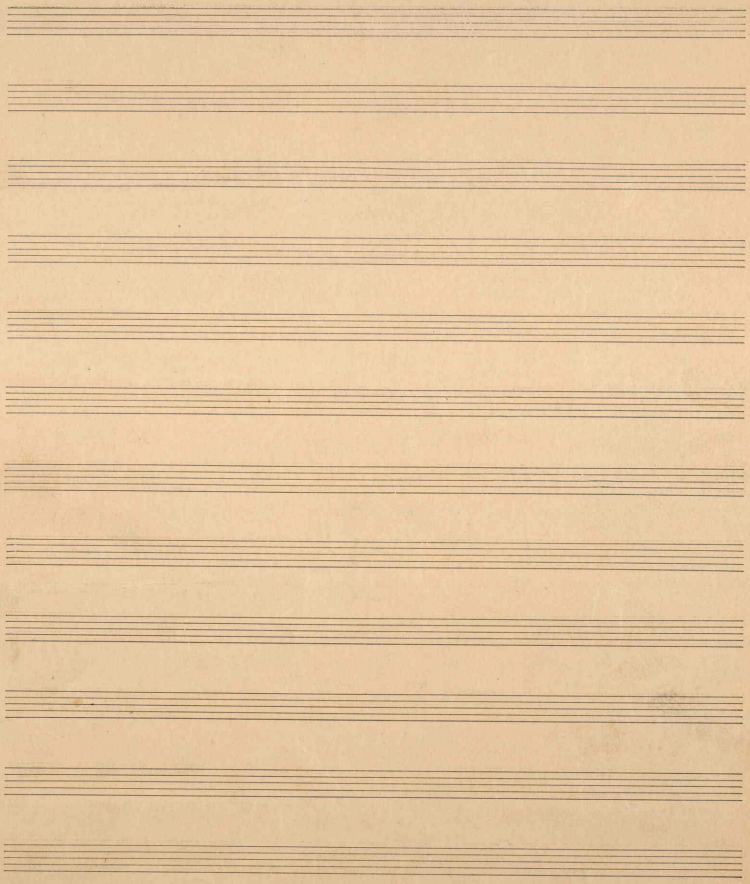
Hard-ship and dan--ger can---not stop Our boys from go---ing o'er the top;

rit.

That free-dom and de-----moc-----ra----cy Ev--er shall reign the world a----new.------

Copyright

M1646
.B



Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

440.150