JUN 25 1917 ©LE408256

Our Dear Red, White & Blue.

Patriotic Song & Chorus

Words & Music

By

Richard D. Anglin. &

Leon F. Chapman.

M1646
.C

Our Dear Red, White & Blue.

Words & Music by Richard G. Anglin
and
Leon F. Chapman.

Tempo di marcia

forte

There were bat-tles fought up-on the o-cean —, And bat-tles fought on Now a-gain we here our coun-try call-ing —, To fight for lib-er land —. If our brave men who fell, could come to us they'd tell, Of the ty —. And its up to us all, to ans-wer duty's call, and to Pow-er of our na-tions might-y hand —. But they bat-tle that the na-tions may be free —. When the died for the hon-or of their coun-try—, That lib-er-ty might live for star Spangl-ed Ban-ner grand is play-ing—, Lets pray for our boys brave and you—, And they'd do the same to-day, if a-live they all would say, We'll true—, May they con-quer for the right, crush for-ev-er pruss-ian might, and fight for our Red, White and Blue—. Our dear Red, White and Blue—, The we all have our bit to do—.

Chorus

Stars, and Stripes so bright—. We'll fight our foes with all our strength, To prove our na-tion right—. We love, we love our country's flag, It's the flag that waves for you—, and we'll pledge our all at an-y time, for our dear Red, White and Blue—.

D.C.

D.C.

410127