JUL 23 1917
©LE 108869

Words by [illegible] I'm a Soldier's Valentine. Music by

Title: I'm A Soldier's Valentine

Piano

Voice

Yank-ee Dood-le John-nie, — He kissed his sweet heart Bon-nie, Bon-nie found her John-nie, — A gal-lant lit-tle Sam-my, —

Vamp

Then put his gun up-on his shoul-der and he marched a-way to war;
Still fight-ing brave-ly in the trench-es with the boys from his home town;

Af-ter ma-ny months of wait-ing with her heart a pal-pi-all the boys sal-u-ted Bon-nie She had saved a kiss for

M1646
.B

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

JUL 23 1917
©CLE408865

I'm a Soldier's Valentine.

Words by Errol Valentine Byrnes. Music by Errol Valentine Byrnes & Lowell S. Will.

Song

Moderato

Piano

Voice

Yank-ee Dood-le John-nie, — He kissed his sweet heart Bon-nie, —
Bon-nie found her John-nie, — A gal-lant lit-tle Sam-my —

Vamp

Then put his gun up-on his shoul-der and he marched a-way to war; —
Still fight-ing brave-ly in the trench-es with the boys from his home town; —

At-ter ma-ny months of wait-ing with her heart a pal-pi-all the boys sal-u-ted Bon-nie She had saved a kiss for

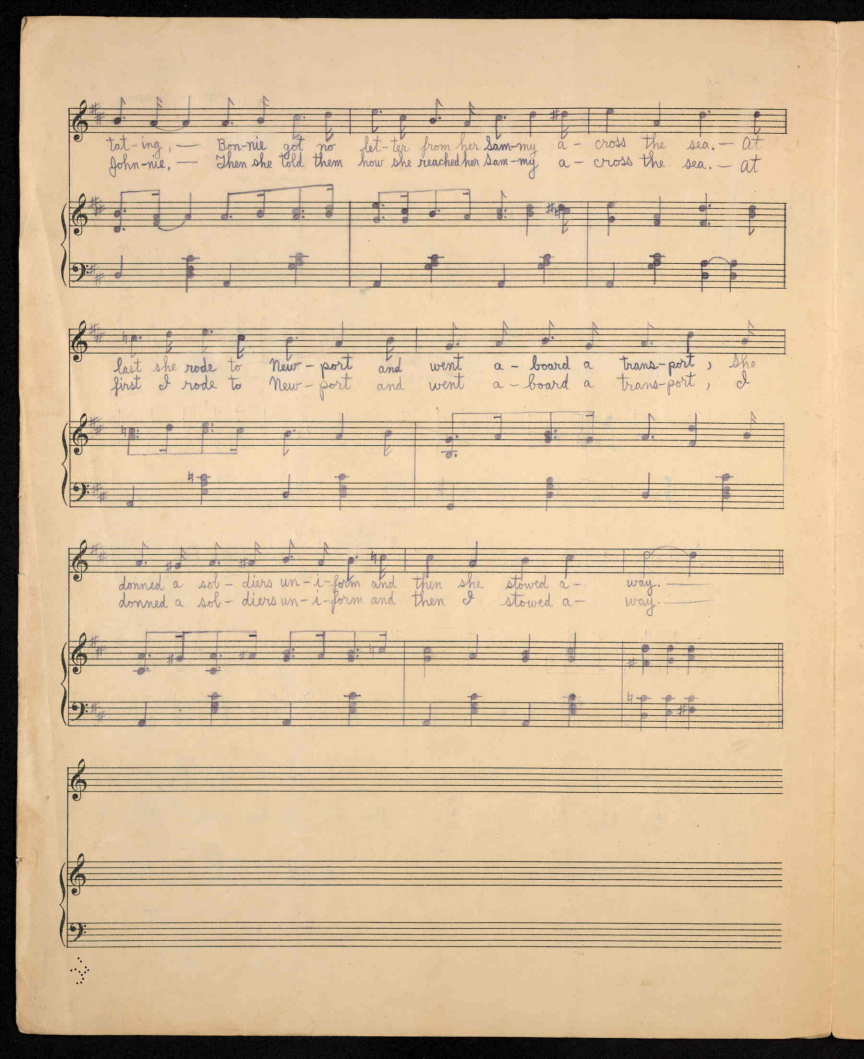
M1646
.B

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.



tat-ing, — Bon-nie got no let-ter from her Sam-my a-cross the sea. — at John-nie, — Then she told them how she reached her Sam-my a-cross the sea. — at last she rode to New-port and went a-board a trans-port, She first I rode to New-port and went a-board a trans-port, I donned a sol-diers un-i-form and then she stowed a-way. — donned a sol-diers un-i-form and then I stowed a-way. —

Chorus.

When the trans-port dropped her an-chor at Hav-re's fam-ous town, — be-fore the

P-f

Sam-mies" and the colo-nel came a lass-ie clad in brown; — Say-ing to the Yank-ee colo-nel with a smile that was sub-lime, — "Will you pass me on to Par-is for I'm a

1. 2.

sol-dier's Val-en-tine?" When the tine?"

Rit. fz D.S.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 – 12 lines.