©CLE 419324
PRESSER
PHILADA.

APR 3 1917

Lyric by Jesse G. M. Glick and Billee Glynn

Music by Ethel Cooper

While You're Away

Voice

a boy and girl-ie were sit-ting to-gether in a soft twi-light breaking with stars.
And in that gar-den so fra-grant with ro-ses she waits him still, a tear in her eye,

He in his young soldier heart wondered whath-er Love were but some-thing Through ma-ny days like a flower that is pin-ing. Through ma-ny months with

M1646
.C

V. S.

which dis - tance mars and while bands called to him This was her an - swer, While all ma - ny a sigh, But well she knows that love some-day will bring him safe - ly

France wait - ed him this was her vow, - Sealed with a kiss that could once more in - to her ten - der arms, - For all her heart is with

Chorus

not be for - got - ten While you're a - way I will love you as now him to pro - tect him While he's in France from war's dan - ger and harm, While you're a - way - I will be faith - ful, While you're a - way I will be true. Hon-ey, no one shall have my kis - - es all will be kept for you, for you While you're a - way. I will be wait - ing 'till you re - turn To my heart a - gain And all my love shall go forth and find you - While you're a - way dear - est of

PRESSER
PHILADA.

PRESSER
PHILADA.

I

men. While you're a-

II

men.

p

425557