SEP 27 1918

When Sammie Gets A Letter From His Home Sweet Home

Lyric by HERBERT E. MARSH

Music by NOBLE COUCHERON

©CLE431289

INTRO. Tempo di Marcia

f

There's a du-ty that you owe, If you don't you'd ought to know That a Sam-mie needs a let-ter ev-'ry Moth-er dear why should you grieve, Just be-cause he had to leave Dont for-get that he is still your "ba-by day. He has gone a-way to fight, so it's up to you to write And mine." Just keep bus-y with your pur-lin, 'till you hear from him in Ber-lin For your help him blow the clouds of gloom a-way. In the land a-cross the sea, or wher-ev-er he may Sam-mie's sure to cross the riv-er Rhine And you know he'll nev-er fail, when they pass a-round the be, There are lots of pret-ty Mol-lies ev-'ry-where; Tell his Sweet-heart she had mail From the land that he will al-ways love the best; But he's feel-ing might-y

mf

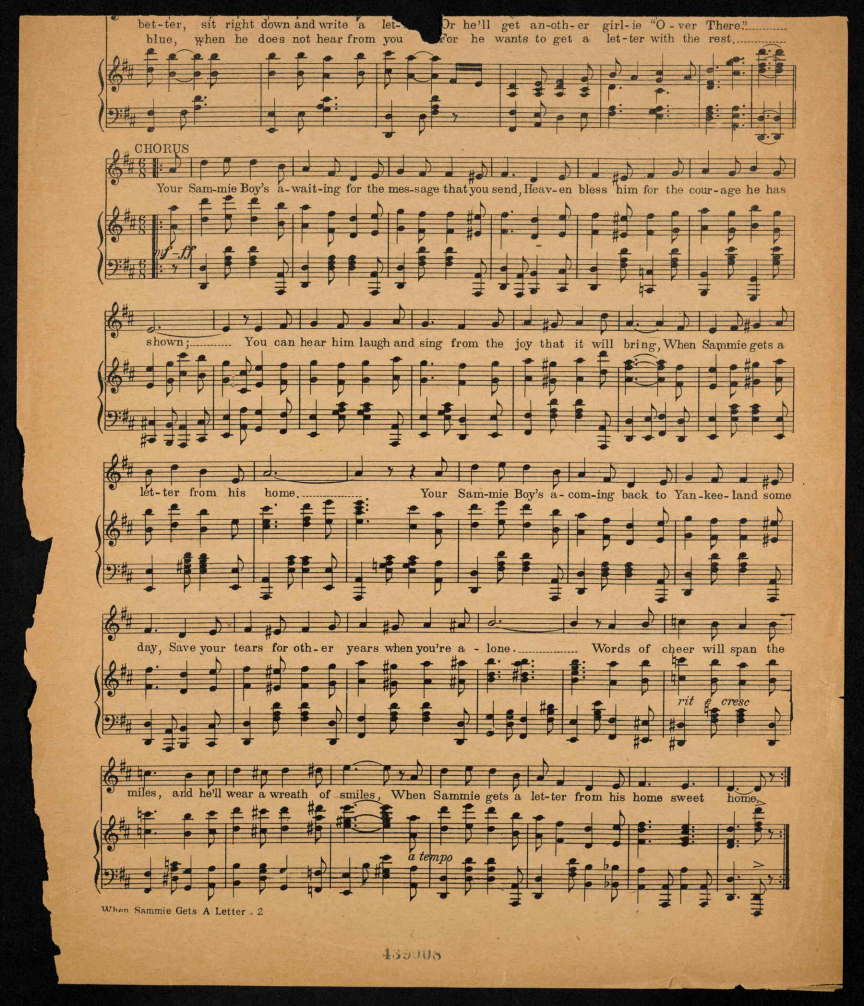
Copyright MCMXVIII by Noble Coucheron, Olivia, Minn.

M1646
.C



bet-ter, sit right down and write a let- Or he'll get an-oth-er girl-ie "O-ver There"..... blue, when he does not hear from you For he wants to get a let-ter with the rest.....
CHORUS
Your Sam-mie Boy's a-wait-ing for the mes-sage that you send, Heav-en bless him for the cour-age he has ff shown;..... You can hear him laugh and sing from the joy that it will bring, When Sammie gets a let-ter from his home..... Your Sam-mie Boy's a-com-ing back to Yan-kee-land some day, Save your tears for oth-er years when you're a-lone..... Words of cheer will span the rit
cresc
miles, and he'll wear a wreath of smiles, When Sammie gets a let-ter from his home sweet home.
a tempo

435908