The Girls Of The U.S.A.

Words and Music
By
H. E. Culp

I've traveled countries ov- er. I've been on foreign coasts.
Speak of your famous beau- ties Greek girls with eyes of jet

I've seen the flaws and heard the brags Of which each nation boasts
Red Rosy girls from Eng land and dark-eyed Italian co-quettes

They talk a bout their girlies There's none so staunch and I've met some dear sweet girlies Beat them you never true. As the girls of dear A-merica Dressed in Red White and
