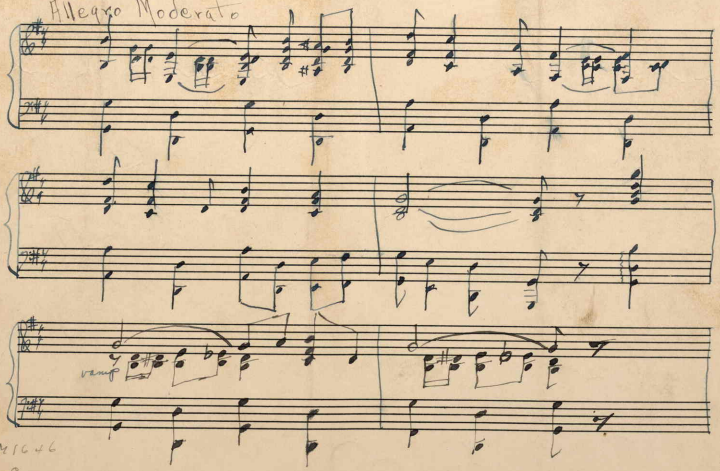
©CLE422909
APR -6 1918

Give A Little Credit To Our Red Cross Nurse.

Words by M.M. Peterson. Music by Bert M. Carlson

Allegro Moderato



M1646
.C

Any where and there To where our boys fight gallant-
And a-gain all join in and cheer our boys to vic-to-

R.H.

ly In no man's Land they take their stand for our ry For right we must; Our cause is just So sweet Land of Li b-er-ty and while they're there we're waiting here to down with au-to-cra-cy. Tho we all yearn for their re-turn they'll find them just as true, To the Flag proud-ly wav-ing be-fore them cheered soon be home to you, So hur-rah for our ar-my and na-vy for the

Made in U. S. A. for
The B. F. Wood Music Co., Boston, New York, Leipzig, London

On-ward by the Red White and Blue But where is Rose? Ros-ie who? Why the boys in the khaki and the blue But where is Rose? Ros-ie who? Why the Red Cross nurse of fame Let's all join in and find her when we sing this sweet re-frain.

Red Cross nurse to-day she took a chance, she's now in France for our good old U. S. A.

CHORUS

Give a lit-tle cred-it to our Red Cross nurse Her heart is true to our

Red White and Blue We will all be wait-ing for you Red Cross nurse when all is thru we'll be with you and tho you're far a-way we'll love you more each day May God be with you, Red Cross nurse!