©CLE448763
APR 26 1919

WOODROW WILSON

(OF THE U. S. A.)

WORDS BY JACK TAYLOR

MUSIC BY ADAM CARROLL

TAYLOR & CARROLL
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
2935 DIAMOND STREET
PHILADELPHIA

M1646
.C

WOODROW WILSON OF THE U. S. A.

Words by JACK TAYLOR

Music by ADAM CARROLL

Marcia Moderato

f fz f

Down in the White House lives a man that the Now he has gone a - cross the sea some thought

𝄋 Vamp

p p

Kai - ser could not bluff, And he's a real A - mer - i - can, I tell you he should stay right here, He'll make a peace for you and me To ev'- ry

he's the stuff; He taught the boys their A B C's, in the good old Yank - ee land bring cheer; The dip - lo-mats will doff their hats when they hear what he will

Copyright 1919 by Taylor & Carroll way, He'll teach the Huns De - moc - ra - cy, Our Wood-row of the U. S. A. say, For he's the great-est man we've had As lead-er of the U. S. A.

CHORUS

He's a long tall man with a lean strong jaw and by heck how he can talk. He p-f un-der-stands the peo-ple, He un-der stands the law And he knowshow men should walk,

I

He don't wear a crown nor a vel-vet gown, He's a plain man ev - ry day. But he tell you that he's great he nev-er has been late He's a plain man ev - ry day. But he made the Kai - ser wear a frown Wood-row Wil-son of the U. S. A. made the Kai - ser ab-di - cate Wood-row Wil-son of the U. S. A.

f.D.S.

457997