©CLE428411
JUN 28 1918

Hand-In-Hand

Words and Music by Edward F. Cogley

Down the road of life to-gath-er we have journeyed hand in hand Framed in crim-son field of glor-y shone a blue star brave and bold with a love and fond en-dear-er we, a-lone could un-der-stand when the clouds hung Then there came the Sad, sad Stor-y How that blue star turned to gold Hand in Hand we dark and drear-y we would smile our way right through to the gold en sun shine dear-ie bore our Sor-row Seemed our hearts but clos-er drew thus we went to meet the mor-row ev-er hand in hand with you!
ev-er hand in hand with you!

Chorus:

Near-er as the shad-ows fall Dear-er grows our love thro all and clear-er comes the wond-rous call from out love-land Gleams-a-bove the heav-ens blue where dreams of love will all come true, Pray let mine be, just there with you Hand in Hand

Copyright 1918 by Edward F. Cogley

M1646
.C

Nr. 3.—Carl Fischer, New York.