

PROSPECTUS FOR 1870.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE
FOR

The Fireside Companion,

The Handsomest, Most Entertaining, Instructive and Ably Conducted Paper in the World.

DEVOTED TO FACT AND FICTION.

In its columns will be found many invaluable treasures in the domain of
ROMANCE, POETRY, HISTORY, ADVENTURE, WIT, HUMOR,

And, in fact, a choice variety of GEMS in every department of literature likely to interest each member, young or old, of the family circle.

Price, in New York, - - - - - 6 Cents per Copy.

One of the most valuable peculiarities of the Fireside Companion is, that while many of the stories are written with a view to general interest alone, the young folks are not forgotten. During the forthcoming year, some of the MOST ADMIRABLE TALES THAT MONEY CAN PROCURE, exclusively for the amusement and instruction of children, both boys and girls, will appear in its columns, arrangements having been made with several celebrated authors to supply a series of "continued" and short stories, in the most several happiest styles, and under the heading

"READING FOR LITTLE FOLKS,"

A splendid piece will be published every week and will in a year will be worth more than the price of the paper.

Although the Fireside Companion has but just entered upon its third year, it stands in the very FIRST RANK of family papers. This proud position has been achieved by the excellence of its illustrations and stories (the production of the best artists and authors in the country), the pleasing, varied nature of the editorials, essays, sketches, poetry, wit, humor, anecdotes, &c., &c., and the neat, admirable arrangement of the general contents.

The Corps of Writers for the Fireside Companion

Comprises many of the most illustrious and popular names in American Literature, viz.:

- | | |
|-----------------------|---------------------|
| Mrs. SUMNER HAYDEN, | AGGESSIN DAILY, |
| LUCY RANDALL COMFORT, | CAPT. CARLETON, |
| MARY REED CROWELL, | CORRY O'LANUS, |
| EVA EVERGREEN, | DR. JUPITER PARSON, |
| REBECCA FORDEN, | ROGER STARBUCK, |
| BRITOMARTE, | JOHN H. NEVINS, |
| EVA ALICE, | KENWARD PHILP, |
| MARY J. WINES, | THE "OLD TRAPPER," |
| J. W. MACKAY, | JOHN F. GOWAN, |
| WALDORE H. PHILLIPS, | HARRY HAZLETON, |
| MAJOR ALMYR, | W. GILMORE SIMS, |
| W. H. NORRIS, | JOHN BROGHAN, |

And many others whom we have not space to enumerate.

The stories in The Fireside Companion are both various and comprehensive, the great aim being to present every shade of human life. Thus we have Local Stories, Border Stories, Domestic Stories, Sea Stories, Tales of Adventure, Revolutionary Stories, Historical Stories, Tales of the Supernatural, of Fairies, Genii, Ghosts, and all that is wonderful and interesting in Nature and Art, besides Humorous and Satirical Articles, by Corry O'LANUS, Hattie Hatfield, and other famous writers, on the Whims, Oddities, and Follies of the times.

In fact, The Fireside Companion has THE BEST CORPS OF WRITERS AND ARTISTS IN AMERICA, and consequently is the VERY BEST FAMILY PAPER extant.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR IT!

TERMS OF THE FIRESIDE COMPANION:

Single Copy,	- - - - - 6 Cents	Four Copies,	- - - - - $10 00
One Copy, per Year,	- - - - - $3 00	Nine "	- - - - - 20 00

And those sending nine subscribers and $20 at one time will be allowed to add additional copies, at $2 50 each.

A limited number of Unobjectionable Advertisements inserted at 50 cents per square line, each insertion.

The co-operation of Postmasters and others in favor of The Fireside Companion is respectfully solicited.

In ordering, be careful to give full name and address.

GEORGE MUNRO, Publisher,

(Post Office Box 5,657.)

116 William Street, New York.