©CLE402110
MAR 15 1917

The Nesza's Answer

William P. Doyle
Author and Composer

M1646
.D

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 1—10 lines.

The Nesza's Answer.

(1) Are you sleep-ing, U-es-za?- and du-ty call-ing- What shall be the an-swer?
(2) Are you dream-ing, U-es-za? The call sounds near-er. What shall be the an-swer?
(3) "Mi-ghty swarms of stal-wart forms to save the Home-land:- That shall be the an-swer.

(1.Cor.) Do you wa-ver; are you clay?- and how-or call-ing: "Stand to Guard your own."
(2.Cor.) Rouse to ac-tion; why de-lay?- The call rings clear-er. Ty-rants bold have grown.
(3.Cor.) Read-y steel and stead-y zeal, in love of Home-land, "Stand to Guard their own.

(1.Cor.) To Stars and Stripes all hom-age pay; A sec-ond choice but leads a-stray.
(2.Cor.) Where-er the Old Flag-your Flag-goes, The Star of Free-dom, ris-ing, glows.
(3.Cor.) O Flag! My Flag! Ad-vance un-furled, Till Free-dom shines through-out the world!"

(1.Cor.) Hear her plead-ing, U-es-za. Be true to Home-land; She is yours a-lone.
(2.Cor.) Hear her call-ing, U-es-za. En-list for Home-land; Loy-al serve your own.
(3.Cor.) See her smil-ing, U-es-za,- the heart of Home-land beat-ing as your own.

William P. Doyle
1760 North New Hampshire St
Los Angeles, California
Author and Composer.

403761