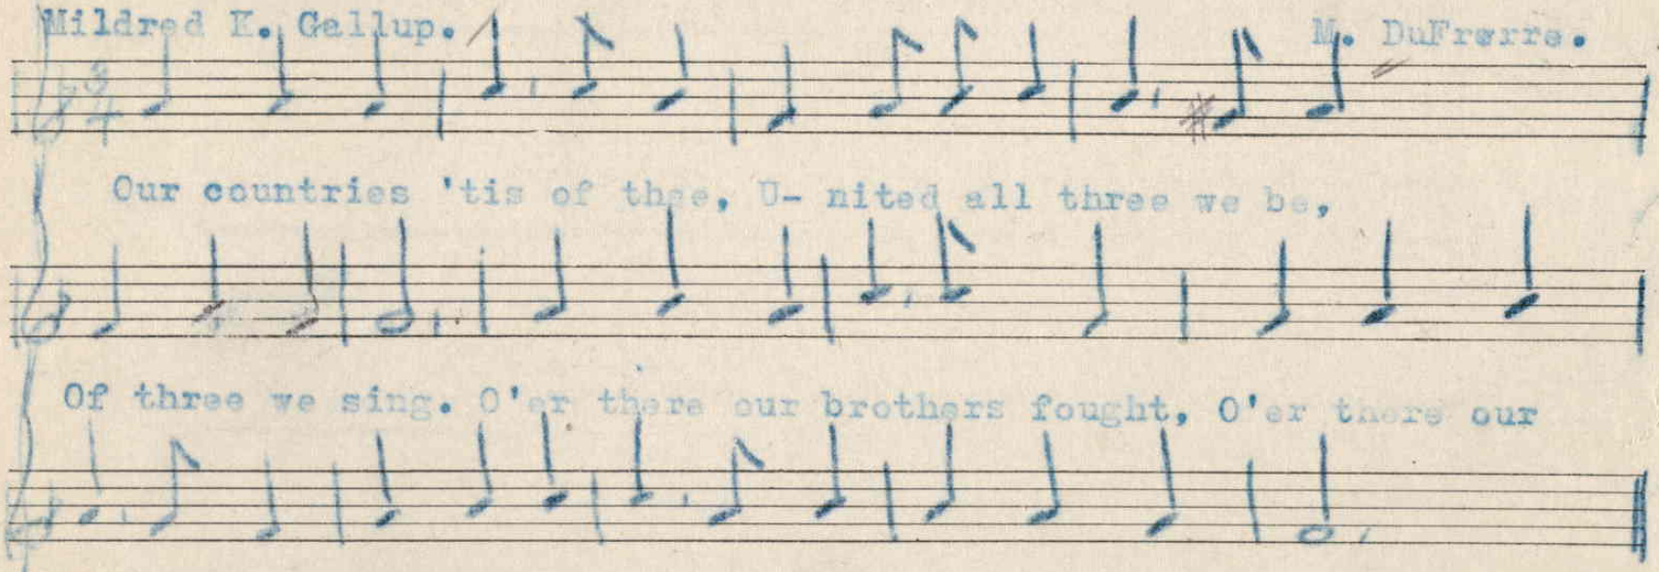
THE TRIPLICATE.

Mildred K. Gallup. M. DuFrerre.



sisters sought On every trench's side To save our lads.

Our native countries three,
Land of their noble free,
Thy names we love.
England and France, the two,
With America back of you
Will keep peace the whole world thru
Like that above.

(3)
Let anthems fill the air,
And let not our prayers be rare
Of freedom's note.
Let all who love their God,
Protect each country's sod;
Let mother's love be shown
On air afloat.

(4)
Our Father's God we pray,
Always for Liberty,
Of three we sing.
Long may our flags wave high,
Of three great nations' light;
Care for us every night,
Great God, Our King.
