Northwestern Lumberman.

A Mammoth WEEKLY Journal, Devoted Especially to Lumber and Wood-working Interests.

THE REPRESENTATIVE ORGAN OF THE LUMBER AND TIMBER TRADES.

Contains trade reports and prices current from all sections of the United States and Canadian Provinces. It furnishes EVERY WEEK statistical information relative to the lumber trade and its kindred interests, worth many times its yearly subscription price, and which can be obtained from NO OTHER SOURCE.

In addition to its exhaustive system of trade reports from all the prominent markets and manufacturing points, it contains each week scientific and mechanical notes, improvements in mill machinery, opinions of practical operators and mechanics upon the best methods of lumber manufacture and manipulation, various processes for seasoning lumber, and a variety of subjects of particular interest to lumbermen, whether manufacturers, dealers, planing-mill operators, or sash, door and blind makers.

TO ADVERTISERS :

The NORTHWESTERN LUMBERMAN is the best medium for engine builders, boiler makers, or manufacturers of saw-mill or wood-working machinery in the world. It goes direct to saw-mills, shingle-mills, planing-mills and all wood-working establishments throughout the United States and Canadas. It is the only medium in which to advertise direct to the whole lumber interest. Rates liberal. Apply to
