

CORNER STONE

A JOURNAL OF CURRENT EVENTS.

Volume IX.
Number 21.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1876.

Terms, in advance:
$1.25 per year.

With charity for none, but contempt for all—Frauds.

Advertise in the CORNER STONE, if your business calls for first-class papers. We live by making our name known, and always know what we want by seeing them ADVERTISED.

This, our CORNER STONE, is founded on a solid foundation of ROSS, and we have the SHOW to speak the sentiments of TAURIN.

THE CORNER STONE.

BY W. L. GARDNER.

What have ye there?
A perfect square—
An emblem of our own,
First, last, and least
to the "North East,"
A CORNER STONE.

A firm, sound base,
On which to place
The Master Mason's throne,
A jettico true
Of what we do—
A CORNER STONE.

An upright man,
Made by God's plan,
Work that will stand alone;
A monument
Of life well spent—
A CORNER STONE.

Ho! Masons all,
Obej the call,
Let clearly be shown;
With precepts rare,
Live by the square,
A CORNER STONE.

THE CORNER STONE.

The above is the title of a sprightly weekly, published by S. W. E. Beckner, 635 Broadway, N. Y. It is devoted principally to Masonic and Theatrical News, and presents an elegant appearance.—"California Spirit of the Times."

"The Corner Stone" is one of the liveliest weeklies extant. It grows steadily in size, merit and public favor.—"N. Y. Republican."

The sparkling little "Corner Stone" of New York City, comes to us as an exchange. It is not a "rough shaler" either, but a published gem of the first water, and "square" at that. May its superstructure continue to rise steadily on its present foundation, until it shall rear its lofty head in eternal sunshine.—"Arcadian Ark," Philadelphia.

The New York Corner Stone is largely circulated.—Extract from Affidavit in the Supreme Court, before Judge Cardozo, July 12, 1871.

The "Corner Stone," devoted to Masonry, the Drama, Fine Arts and the working classes. Typographically it is a success, and no doubt will find the masses.—"N. Y. Express."

The "Corner Stone," published at 635 Broadway, New York, comes to us in a new and appropriate dress. It discusses all questions relating to the present age in a straight-forward and justifiable manner. It is also devoted to the interests of Masons, Theatres, and to the people in general. We bespeak for it an extensive patronage.—"Our Illustrated," Providence, R. I.

The spiciest, witliest and most entertaining paper is the "Corner Stone," devoted to Masonry, Theatricals and general intelligence. Liberal in its views, and discusses all points from an independent standpoint. It is truly a masonic organ, and very acceptable to the fraternity.—"Utica Daily Bee."

We have lately added to our exchange list the "Corner Stone," published at 635 Broadway, New York. It is neatly gotten up, has a taking head and title, shows brains all through, deserves success, and we wish for it an unlimited prosperity.—"Green Room," New Haven, Conn.

The "Corner Stone," published at 635 Broadway, every Saturday, by S. W. E. Beckner, is a prof. little sheet devoted to Masonry, Fine Arts and the Drama. Though small, it contains a large amount of reading matter, being set in solid type.—"New York Sun."

The "Corner Stone" is sunny, wide-awake and thoroughly independent; it "goes for" all corruptionists, high and low. Its editor is a sure guarantee of success.—"New York Herald."

It would pay the readers of our paper in Utica, whether masonically inclined or not, to subscribe for the "Corner Stone," a masonic paper of real masonic truth, published in New York City. Its editor and proprietor is not only a Mason, but a man as well.—"Box."

The "Corner Stone," a masonic weekly, published by S. W. E. Beckner, an educated Mason and past master, is a charming little paper, live to the issues of the times. It is bound to become a success, being cosmopolitan in character, but devoted to the interests of masonry.—"New York Evening Globe."

The CORNER STONE is the only weekly MASONIC paper published in New York, and being the oldest, is peculiarly adapted to first class advertisers; circulates all over the Union.
