To the Friends of Woman.—The GOLDEN DAWN occupies a distinct field in journalism; advocating as it does a broader and more extended sphere for Woman than has thus far been assigned to her. Wider avenues in the World of Work, whether manual or intellectual, and better opportunities to enter the professions and compete for the honorable emoluments arising from them, should be opened to her. She should be educated more liberally, and prepared mentally and physically for the higher and nobler callings for which nature and nature's God intended her. The purity and queenhood of the home should be maintained supreme by Woman. The GOLDEN DAWN battles for the establishment of these principles and the realization of that more perfect day for Woman, and consequently for humanity, of which the present is but the early dawn. Business men and women who are in sympathy with the principles and objects of this journal are respectfully solicited to place their business advertisements in its columns, a limited number of which are set apart for this purpose. Its wide circulation among the homes of California and the Pacific Coast constitutes it the best advertising medium of its class in the West. See rates of advertising above. By aiding the paper you aid Woman.
